To a sweet girl

Naomi,
I'll always remember that
goofy laugh of yours
you're such a great girl to know. I apologize for all the stamp fights.

JANette

Naomi,

Your making me write a whole page, like you make me do other things, that you've want done. Well, to start off with your really a sweet kid considering how retarded you act. But ~~since~~ you've got that sweet personality from ~~al-~~ though you do never admit it, because you've always been afraid someone would find out. But please don't worry, no one ~~for~~ will find out not unless they read this then I'll come world famous as Janette the sweet kid. It's not that I'm bragging, it's just that you've got to admit that some of my sweetness wore off and I caught it.

Now your looks you got them from Junior, but as usual, you never admit it to anyone, now how do you think poor juniors feels. You ~~steal~~ his looks then treat him like a dog. I thought ~~you~~ was pretty mean of you, but anyway you got your good looks didn't ya? ~~If~~ they did come from a Dog! BARK for me naomer!

Now to get real serious, you've got a wonderful personality Naomi, and I hope you never change. You never treat anyone mean, even if ya hate he or she to death, and your always willing to help anyone if they ever need help.

I think Ricky Warren was dumb for breaking up, but the next guy you get has to have brains if he ~~is~~ keeps you and doesn't treat you like Ricky did, and I've got to admit you've change since you ~~was~~ broke-up with him and take that as a complement. He did have you where everything in site had his name on it but now he don't, or does he?

Anyway your one of the greatest in my book and always will be because I've known you a long time now, and I hope we'll always be friends, because I like great friends. Well I'm ~~is~~ finished!

Love Ya

Janette

Teen-ager Grow Up

"But you owe the world something. You owe it your energy and your talent. That no one will be poor, or sick, or old. In plain simple words, quit being a child of your dream world. Get a backbone, not a start acting like a child." Gilliam notes that who keep begging are old enough to take "responsibilities." If mature enough to accept responsibilities their parents have been carrying for years.

Most teen-agers, Gilliam adds, are prospective citizens. "The present of our children get a little, 97 per cent don't get it out."

But teen-agers have to be responsible. They're "important" teen-agers. He says to teens: "Be a good and responsible citizen."

Pam Thompson and Fred Huff serve as editors of the Titan Talk, school newspaper. Staff members include Don Burand, Cheryl Messina, Jenny Kinslow, Kathy Tinsley, Kathy Nunez and Mike Clonce. Education Does Add Up

"Education Adds Up" is the theme of American Education Week scheduled for November 6-12, which is sponsored by the National Education Association, the National Congress of Parents and Teachers, the U.S. Office of Education, and the American Legion.

Education adds up to human dignity, to rational thinking, to creative spirit, to self-reliance, to economic competence, to life and to lifelong opportunity. All these which are added during the week, relate to the needs of our schools.

If all men should have equal education, all men should have equal opportunity. The public schools were created to give human dignity to all.

Strike one—with Jonny Randall at bat . . .

Coach Pat Price waits and sees his team perform.

Baseball Starts With A Bang

According to bat-weilding Johnnie Colvard, night games are cooler.

"You're out," says Jonny Randall to Johnnie Colvard.

Ready to hit (above photo) is Dean Sisemore. Coach Pat Price (right photo) shows Johnny Coffey how to bat.

Sprinter Gene Mathis practices for a relay race.

With mighty heaves, Paul Tiefel and Ron West throw the shot-put.

Soccer Skill . . .

Physical Fitness Is Goal

Scoring Co-ordination . . .

'Hey, this P.E. class is okay!'

To Naomi:

To one of the sweetest girls I have ever ~~gone~~ with, and who is the ^{one} ~~one~~ I hope to marry very soon. And ~~please~~ please don't worry about Linda because I don't care about her anymore. I love you more than I did Classes here and please believe me baby. Because I think more about you than anybody I have ever gone with, and in the I really love you alot too. Naomi when you said

I didn't believe you, baby I do believe you and Titan World please believe it

O.K. And about that Ricky I meant what I said I would do if he calls again. And you don't worry about me talking either, if I did him I would
ago. So when I broke up with you a long time mean every word of it I love you baby I me O.K. Well I don't think of anything else but I Love You Alot.

So sweet, nice, etc, ~~about~~ God + everything
I think of it as soon as I think of it.

Yours
Carriger

Love ya
Carriger

Not really
I hope we never have any trouble over those (me) lego: word game. Hope you have everything you do. Hope you have fun with you-know-like tonight!
We're going to have fun this summer
hark!

Naomi?

Boy I sure did
have a neat time
in 1st hour. I guess because you were there. We've been good friends. And I hope to see you next year. Good luck always

Fresh. Bonnie
66-67 Alcedo

Naomi
you are a real sweet girl I have had a lot of fun with
at the skating rink.
Good luck in all the years to come. Don't be too hard on the boys.
You're truly "pro",
LSD
Garry Davis

To a real sweet girl, who
it has been fun
knowing! Love ya
Ted.
